

Sue Brown

Sophisticated surface artist and posh pattern designer Sue Brown's sleek, chic and unique style brings new life, energy and attention to a wide variety of products and industries.

The South Carolina-based designer combines her passion for fashion, color and painting to produce artistic, original patterns and textile designs that can be used for clothing and accessories, interior and exterior home decor and paper and stationary goods. In 2013, Sue created her own line of trendy products showcasing her style of painterly images and abstract drawings in bold, eye-popping colors and shapes.

A native of Trinidad and Tobago, all of Sue's creations are inspired by her Caribbean background, cultural experiences and environmental surroundings. With her textile art and design, anything and everything goes! Each design is hand-drawn or painted using various media, including acrylics, oils, watercolor, ink, pen, mixed material and marker. Once completed they are scanned and manipulated digitally to produce a collection applicable to a multitude of industries.

Speaking of cultures, Sue would one day love to meet and work with Chris Chun, an Australian designer with Chinese heritage, whose unique combination of vivid color, patterns and symbolic imagery have adorned the high-fashion lines of Giorgio Armani, Missoni, Diane Von Furstenberg and Laura Ashley.

Besides creating conversation starters with each new statement piece and textile art print, Sue also enjoys photography, hiking and traveling. While gifted with a talented eye in business, her greatest creation has been raising her three daughters, whom she home-schools and teaches them crafts in her design studio.
